GETTING AROUND

NEW ORLEANS

The city has many transportation options to get you where you want to go. Here are a few of our favorites!

CANAL ST. STREETCAR
©David Mora

TAKE THE STREETCAR

Ride the rails in classic New Orleans style. The historic streetcar has routes throughout the city, from Uptown's Audubon Park to the cemeteries and greenspaces of Mid-City.

HAIL A RIDE

Taxis, rideshares, pedicabs, and car services operate throughout New Orleans, making it easy to get around town quickly.

BOARD THE BUS

New Orleans buses run throughout the city, and one of our favorites is the No. 11 route that passes the shops of Magazine Street.

CATCH THE FERRY

Historic Algiers Point is just a quick boat ride away. A single ferry ride is $2 for adults, with discounts for children, seniors, and riders with disabilities. Departing every half-hour, the ferry can carry pedestrians, bikes, and scooters.

GRAB A BIKE

Cyclists love New Orleans, thanks in part to the city's designated bike lanes and plenty of rental options. Be sure to check out Blue Bikes, our bike-share program that allows visitors to reserve bikes from stations throughout town. Need information on bike routes? Head over to BikeEasy.org for maps, guides, and more – or scan the code to explore our bike itinerary!

GET THE RTA APP!

Interested in riding the ferry, streetcar, or bus? Download NORTA's Le Pass App to purchase advance passes, scan fares, and check routes.

DATE NIGHT

New Orleans is a city made for romance. You'll find plenty of it in the outdoor courtyard at Vyoone's, on the balcony at Muriel's, and in the sophisticated atmosphere of Avo.

LATE NIGHT

Get lost in a late night with a show at The Rabbit Hole, the late-night menu at Palm&Pine, or at one of many bars stretching from the French Quarter to Uptown. You also can't go wrong with late-night beignets from Café du Monde or dancing to the tune of brass bands on Frenchmen Street.

CLASSIC COCKTAILS

Experience New Orleans history by the glass at classic bars. The French 75 Bar, Carousel Bar, and Napoleon House are all within walking distance of each other in the French Quarter.

LEISURELY LIBATIONS

Grab a fresh frozen daiquiri at Boucherie, kick back with an old fashioned at Barrel Proof, or sip cocktails (or mocktails) at Copper Vine.

WHAT'S BREWING

Breweries, brewpubs, microbreweries – New Orleans has them all! Check out Port Orleans Brewing Co., Urban South, Faubourg Brewing Co., and NOLA Brewing Co. while you're here.

HARRAH'S IS BECOMING CAESARS IN 2024!

Harrah's
NEW ORLEANS

Around 1822, America's first casino opened in New Orleans. Harrah's New Orleans Casino opened its doors in 1999, and the Harrah's Hotel and Fulton Street pedestrian promenade soon followed in 2006. That legacy continues as Harrah's New Orleans will become Caesars New Orleans in 2024!

This $325 million dollar transformation includes the addition of a 340-room hotel tower, a Nobu Hotel and Restaurant, new dining options, a new adult circus-comedy experience and more. During the transition, you can still "let the good times roll" on hot slots, video poker and table games. New amenities will open as they are completed, so it's a great time to become a Caesars Rewards Member to earn towards dining, shopping, gaming and future stays!

Experience two of the casino's newest additions, the World Series of Poker Room and Caesars Sportsbook. The Poker Room is the largest in the state with 20 tables in 5,000 square feet of space that offers several exciting varieties of poker. Next to that is Caesars Sportsbook with a 147-foot video wall, state-of-the-art audio system, private fan cave and massive lounge where you can grab a drink and bet like a Caesar.

Fuel your cravings at the all-new Celebrity Chef Food Hall inside the casino, where New York-style pizza, fun desserts, burgers and more are offered at different food counters. Dinner plans? The Steakhouse inside the casino offers locally sourced seafood, steaks and a wide array of wines and craft cocktails, all set to the backdrop of Blue Dog art by local artist George Rodrigue.

New Orleans football legend Archie Manning has also created the ultimate sports fan's dream here: Manning's Sports Bar & Grill on Fulton Street. A tailgate-inspired menu, 13-foot mega screens and an outdoor courtyard make this location the perfect spot to catch the game and grab a bite. Stay close to the action in the AAA Four Diamond Award-winning Harrah's Hotel. The hotel anchors Fulton Street — a pedestrian mall lined with a coffee shop, restaurants and a boutique bowling spot.

For more than 20 years, Harrah's New Orleans has entertained both locals and visitors alike and will soon continue the legacy as Caesars New Orleans.

GUMBO

The only thing more New Orleans than a pot of gumbo simmering on the back burner is arguing about the right way to make it. Gumbo is a thick stew made with a roux, plus a wide variety of ingredients like celery, peppers, okra, chicken, sausage, and/or seafood. Get Gumbo YaYa – a tasty chicken and sausage blend – from Mr. B's Bistro, a flavorful seafood and hot sausage gumbo from The Munch Factory, or a fragrant curried gumbo from Saffron NOLA.

BEIGNETS

Soft, pillowy, and covered in a mountain of powdered sugar, beignets are a New Orleans staple. These glorious deep-fried doughnuts are available at restaurants and shops across the city, but you can't pass up the iconic Café du Monde, established in 1862 and conveniently located in the heart of the French Quarter. We also love Loretta's praline beignets, an even sweeter twist on the classic beignet, and don't sleep on savory beignet options like blue crab beignets with malt vinegar aioli at La Petite Grocery.

SEAFOOD

Fresh seafood is ubiquitous in New Orleans. Belly up to the oyster bar at Superior Seafood to knock a few back or take part in crawfish season come springtime. Enjoy local delicacies like the stuffed shrimp at Dooky Chase's, Catfish Jourdain at Lil' Dizzy's, or the Redfish Courtbouillon from Saint John. You can't visit New Orleans without having some seafood!

PO-BOYS

The Po-Boy, or "poor boy" as it was once known, is a humble sandwich with two slices of French bread and your choice of fillings between them. Parkway Bakery has some of the best and you can choose from golden fried shrimp, drool-worthy roast beef, spicy hot sausage, crispy fried catfish, or even a Thanksgiving po-boy come November. Grab a beer and some napkins and set out for a picnic on Bayou St. John to feast like a king.

RED BEANS

Jazz legend Louis Armstrong loved this classic Monday night dish so much that he signed his letters "Red Beans and Ricely Yours." You can get red beans and rice on any day in New Orleans, including at Café Reconcile in Central City, Junior's on Harrison in Lakeview, or Joey K's on Magazine Street. Order a side of hot sausage and prepare for this beloved New Orleans dish to blow your mind.

AAH-MAZING

ARCHITECTURE

BEHIND THE SCENES

Take a stroll and discover the city's iconic architectural styles.

SHOTGUN HOUSE

Shotgun-style architecture is notable for its long, narrow layout that features one room opening into the next, without hallways, and no front yard. These are found in the older sections of town, from the Irish Channel to the Bywater and beyond.

CENTER HALL COTTAGE

Center Hall Cottages have one-and-a-half stories with a front entrance, columns running the length of a wide front porch (with its door centered) and side-gabled roofs. The Beauregard-Keyes House, built in 1826, is a classic Center Hall Cottage.

DOUBLE GALLERY HOUSE

This style's chief characteristics include two stories with three openings across the front, deep-set covered porches on the first and second floors, and a front door that's typically on the left or right side of the porch.

CREOLE TOWNHOUSE

Creole Townhouses are notable for having two to four stories, hidden rear courtyards, iron balconies, and brick or stucco exteriors. They are found throughout the French Quarter — particularly the Pontalba Buildings surrounding Jackson Square.

CREOLE COTTAGE

Creole Cottages are easy to spot with their high, steep-side gable roofs, brick chimneys, and wooden storm shutters.

GREEK REVIVAL HOUSE

Features of this style include full-height porches with round columns or blocked piers, a parapet, and trim around the outside windows called a "Greek-key surround." Gallier Hall, an 1845 architectural masterpiece formerly used as City Hall, is one of New Orleans' most prominent Greek Revival buildings.

CULTURE SEEKERS

A MUSEUM FOR EVERY TRAVELER

History lover? Art aficionado?
Food fanatic? You're in for a treat!

THE SAZERAC HOUSE

FOR THE HISTORY BUFF

Rich in history and more than 300 years old, the city offers the New Orleans African American Museum, Le Musée de f.p.c., Museum of the Southern Jewish Experience, Lower Ninth Ward Living Museum, and the award-winning National WWII Museum.

FOR THE ART LOVER

From the Ogden Museum of Southern Art and the McKenna Museum of African American Art to the New Orleans Museum of Art and the adjoining Besthoff Sculpture Garden, there's no shortage of exhibits to browse. Another option is StudioBE, a 35,000-square-foot warehouse focused on Black art and collaborations within the community.

FOR THE FOODIE

Love New Orleans food? There's a museum for that! Browse food products from the South's past and present at the Southern Food & Beverage Museum (and be sure to check out their calendar for cooking classes, demos, pop-ups, and more) or discover the history behind our most famous cocktail, the Sazerac, at The Sazerac House.

FOR THE MUSIC ENTHUSIAST

The New Orleans Jazz Museum is full of wonderful exhibits on the city's storied music history. Tremé's Petit Jazz Museum provides a glimpse into New Orleans' musical culture, from brass band second lines to jazz that pulsates throughout the city.

FOR THE EXPERIENTIAL TRAVELER

For a different type of museum visit, get a 360-degree view of the city at Vue Orleans or pull out the camera at JAMNOLA, an interactive, larger-than-life experience celebrating the city's music, art, and culture.

FOR THE KIDDOS

The Louisiana Children's Museum is an interactive, indoor/outdoor oasis for young learners. Mardi Gras World and the Audubon Zoo, Aquarium, and Nature Center are all must-dos for the whole family.

FAMILY FUN

IN NEW ORLEANS

Why do young vacationers and their families flock to New Orleans? Simple: there's just so much to do.

EXPLORE

Start your New Orleans family adventure — where else? —in the French Quarter! The city's oldest neighborhood is also its most magical. Walk through Jackson Square, one of the most enchanting and photo-worthy spots in the city. Woldenberg Park, overlooking the Mississippi River, is another scenic stop that is as beautiful as it is historical.

Walk down Decatur Street to the French Market's open-air shops, where the sheer variety of cool stuff, live jazz music, and the sweet scent of pralines will make you want to stay awhile.

If you'd prefer riding to walking, we've got you covered. Mule-drawn carriages can be found parked in front of Jackson Square, and there are numerous bike rental and pedicab companies that will get you around comfortably and conveniently. You could also board a boat: multiple riverboats offer family-friendly daytime and dinner cruises down the Mississippi River, starting near the French Quarter.

There's plenty beyond the Quarter to explore, too. From bike tours in the Marigny to boat tours in City Park, New Orleans makes it easy for families to enjoy the outdoors.

Just outside of New Orleans, you'll find swamp tour outfitters, state parks, and nature preserves that will give you an inside glimpse into the New Orleans area's natural environment.

PLAY

New Orleans City Park is a wonderland of family-friendly things to do, with days' worth of playtime in store for active families. Paddle boats, horseback rides, bikes, and miniature trains are just a few of the options. Audubon Park is another main attraction for outdoor fun. In addition to the world-class Audubon Zoo, you'll also find a Mississippi riverfront park and sports complex known as The Fly.

AUDUBON AQUARIUM

LEARN

New Orleans can satisfy your family's thirst for knowledge. Start your journey of discovery at the Louisiana Children's Museum, a hands-on attraction that sparks imagination. Audubon Aquarium of the Americas is sure to be a hit with the kids, with its exotic fish and cute critters.

Other awesome museums include The National WWII Museum, which has kid-friendly programming; New Orleans Pharmacy Museum, which houses antique medical devices and medicines; and Mardi Gras World, where Carnival floats are made year-round.

Vue Orleans not only boasts incredible views of the city, but you can also learn more about the functionality of the river, local cuisine, the history of the city, and popular landmarks that surround New Orleans.

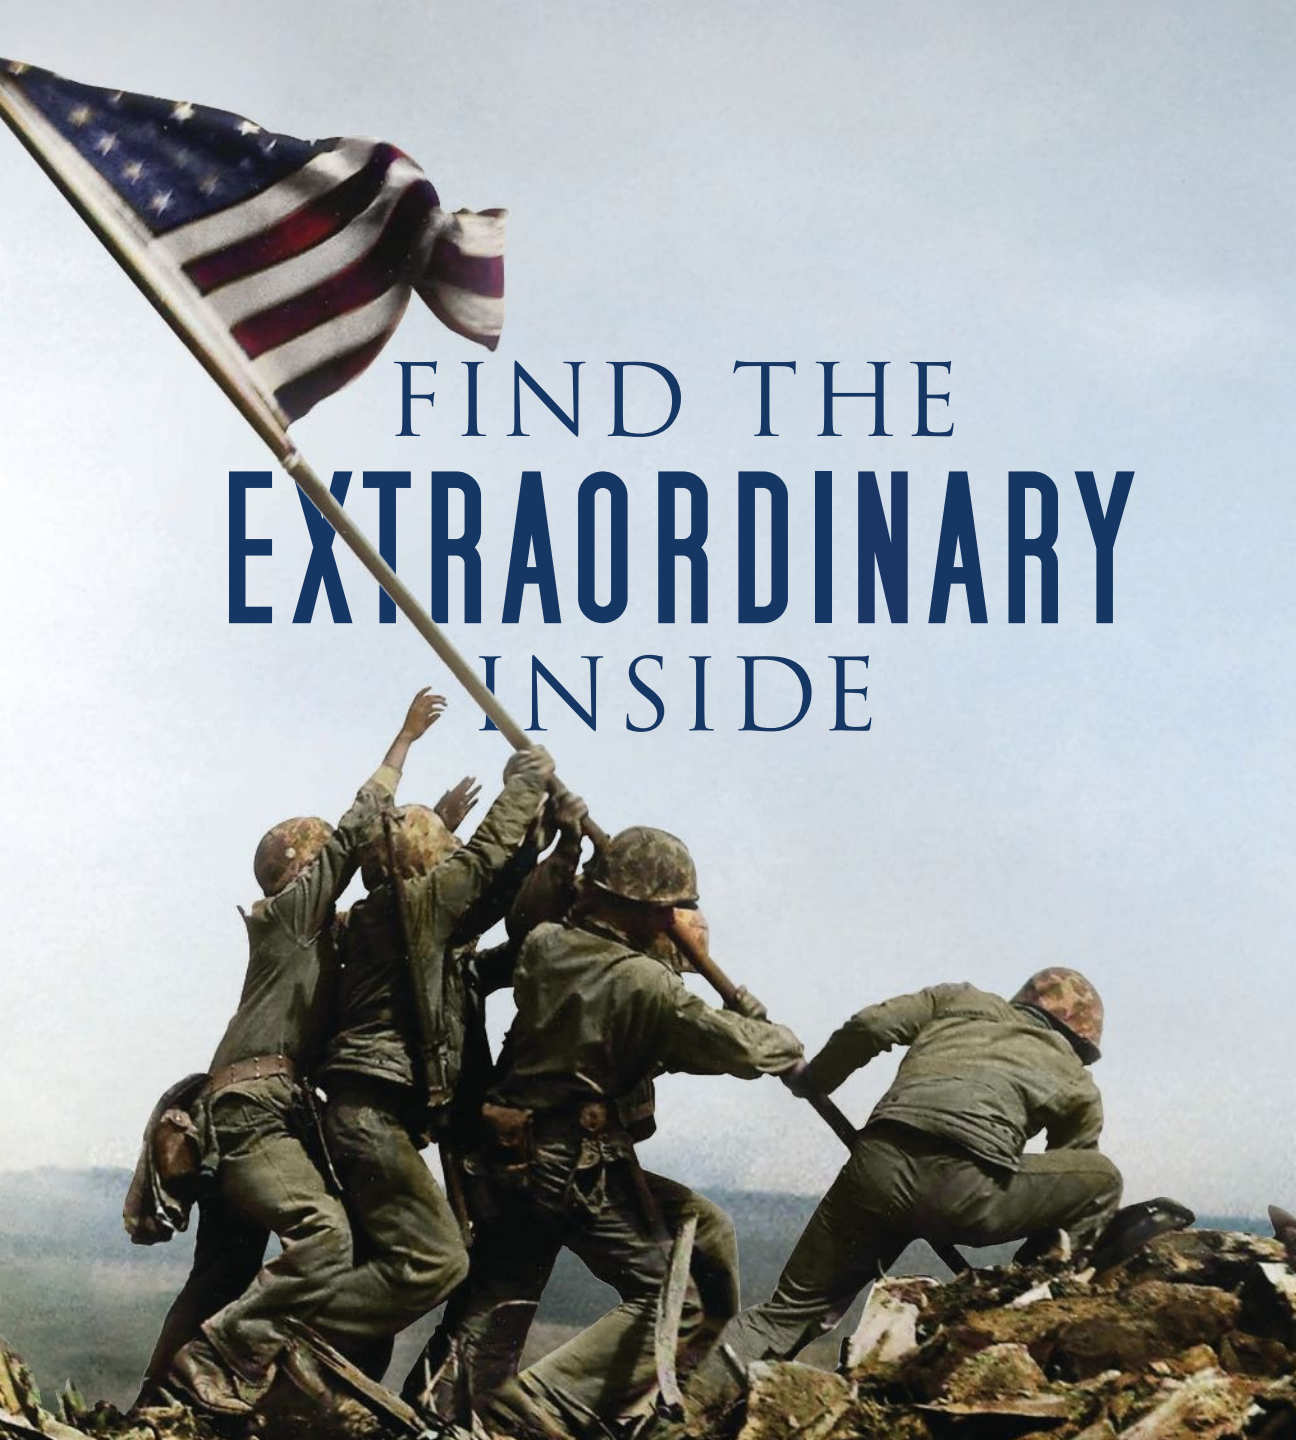

EAT

All this activity has to work up an appetite, are we right? New Orleans has many family-friendly restaurants serving up authentic dishes in every corner of town.

FRENCH QUARTER

Historic, romantic, and charming, the French Quarter is many things.
Boring is not one of them.

STAY

Whether you prefer a quaint, tucked-away inn or a hotel right in the middle of the bustling French Quarter, you'll find the perfect accommodations in this quintessential New Orleans neighborhood.

EAT

Sample classic New Orleans cuisine at decades-old Galatoire's or Arnaud's, or leave the fine dining to others and grab a casual meal at Johnny's Po-Boys. You can't visit New Orleans without sampling seafood, so visit Acme Oyster House or Deanie's Seafood for a true taste of the Gulf.

DRINK

Historic bars like Pat O'Brien's, local hangouts, Bourbon Street-based clubs, craft-cocktail lounges, and lush cabarets line the streets. Catch a traditional jazz show at Preservation Hall or Fritzels during your evening out.

SHOP

Shopping in the French Quarter means antiques, jewelry, clothes, and one-of-a-kind gifts. Browse the artifacts at M.S. Rau, situated on the art-famous Royal Street. Stop into Frank Rella Photography for a print of natural Louisiana or Fleurty Girl for an "only-in-NOLA" gift.

SEE & DO

With so much culture, history, and entertainment, you'll find a unique and exciting experience around every corner. Take a cooking class at the New Orleans School of Cooking, see a 360-degree view of the city and French Quarter from high atop Vue Orleans, browse exhibits at the Historic New Orleans Collection, or take a Mississippi River cruise on a historic riverboat.

UPTOWN

Uptown is a leisurely streetcar ride away from the French Quarter, populated by 19th-century homes, the Audubon Zoo, award-winning restaurants, and a prominent university scene.

STAY

Everything from locally owned historic B&Bs to brand-name hotels are great places to stay and experience the culture of this lovely residential neighborhood.

EAT

In Uptown New Orleans, enjoy Creole/Cajun fare at Brightsen's, Atchafalaya, and Jacques-Imo's, eclectic cuisine at Mister Mao, modern French at Lilette, or Israeli specialties at Shaya.

DRINK

From college and neighborhood dive bars to craft cocktails, there's no shortage of lively spots to imbibe throughout this expansive neighborhood.

SHOP

Magazine Street offers an array of locally-owned boutiques specializing in everything from clothing and accessories to antiques, gifts, art, and home decor. A few of our favorites include Hazelnut, Dunn and Sonnier, and Perlis.

SEE & DO

Whether you're looking for a picnic in Audubon Park, a trip to the zoo, a ride on the streetcar, or a walking tour, there are countless ways to spend the day Uptown.

CENTRAL BUSINESS DISTRICT/DOWNTOWN

Welcome to the Central Business District (CBD), where historic buildings, business offices, fine dining, and the hidden gems of New Orleans await.

STAY

Enjoy any type of accommodation, from large name-brand hotels to trendy suites and everything in between.

EAT

Enjoy Creole fare at Palace Café, Asian fare at Maypop, Italian food at Josephine Estelle, and an array of cuisines at Pythian Market, a food hall with rotating vendors.

DRINK

With every kind of bar – from upscale cocktail lounges to sports bars and local dives – you'll find your new favorite drinking spot in the CBD.

SHOP

This is the perfect part of town to indulge in some serious shopping. Pick up an accessory at Meyer the Hatter or stop into Rubenstein's for upscale menswear.

SEE & DO

Find countless things to do in this bustling area of the city. From the Museum of the Southern Jewish Experience to Drink Lab to cooking classes at NOCHI, there's something for everyone.

GARDEN DISTRICT
©Paul Broussard

GARDEN DISTRICT

The homes of New Orleans' rich and famous sit among ancient oak trees and picturesque streetcars, affirming the Garden District's reputation as one of the city's most upscale neighborhoods.

STAY

Rest well at one of the B&Bs, upscale hotels, and boutique accommodations of the Garden District.

EAT

The Garden District is filled with cozy cafés and lunch spots, as well as some of the most storied Creole restaurants in town. Enjoy fine dining at Commander's Palace, or a more casual atmosphere at Gris-Gris, Cho Thai, or Union Ramen.

DRINK

What's your preference — glasses of wine on the outdoor patio of an upscale hotel bar, a low-key hangout with friends with a pitcher of beer, or perhaps a craft cocktail on a balcony overlooking Magazine Street? Whatever you're feeling, there's a chance you'll find it here.

SHOP

Magazine Street, which runs through the heart of the Garden District, is among

New Orleans' top shopping destinations, filled with everything from antiques and rugs to luxury eyewear and locally made jewelry. Be sure to stop at Garden District Book Shop to find your next read.

SEE & DO

Take a casual stroll through the Garden District to view its magnificent historical architecture. Other highlights include riding the St. Charles Avenue streetcar and visiting local breweries.

CITY PARK

MID-CITY

Once considered the “Back of Town,” this neighborhood is now the heart of New Orleans and is home to one of the city’s largest historic districts.

STAY

Stay in a neighborhood hostel or B&B to experience the true, relaxed vibe of Mid-City.

EAT

Cochon de lait po-boys at Rosedale, blackened redfish at Ralph’s on the Park, and crawfish at Clesi’s are a few of your options for dining in this restaurant-dense neighborhood.

DRINK

Drink up at swanky cocktail bars or outdoor wine and beer gardens that embody the laid-back bar culture of Mid-City.

SHOP

Local boutiques and wine shops are dotted throughout the area.

SEE & DO

The expansive New Orleans City Park, aboveground cemeteries, walking path Lafitte Greenway, and stunning architecture make Mid-City the perfect neighborhood to explore outdoors.

CENTRAL CITY BBQ
©Paul Broussard

CENTRAL CITY

With numerous restaurants and museums, Central City is one of the fastest-growing cultural hubs in town.

EAT

Small-scale, neighborhood-centric restaurants on and near Oretha Castle Haley Boulevard add to Central City's understated charm. Enjoy smoked meat and barbecue at Central City BBQ.

DRINK

Beloved locally-owned bars can be found throughout this area, many of them just a short distance from St. Charles Avenue.

SEE & DO

The Ashé Cultural Arts Center often hosts art markets and various programming. Paradigm Gardens is an oasis in the city, with frequent outdoor concerts and goat yoga once a month.

Real Flavor. Real History. Real Adventure.

In Louisiana's River Parishes, you'll find excitement around every corner. Discover it in the uniquely flavorful aromas drifting from the gumbo pots and smokehouses along the Andouille Trail or in the delicate, curling smoke rising from a Perique tobacco cigar.

Make adventure your destination in the bayous, swamps, and lakes of New Orleans Swamp Country where you can fish the waters of the Catfish Capital of the World. Go further and you'll find hiking on boardwalks raised over marshy swamplands, or kick back and enjoy a guided bayou boat tour.

Our history, real and unvarnished, is felt in the landmark homes of New Orleans Plantation Country and the museums along the 1811 Slave Revolt Trail; offering compelling and authentic experiences which provide a stark, yet stunning, reminder of our complex past.

BEYOND

NEW ORLEANS CITY LIMITS

Just outside the city are mysterious and scenic swamps, historical sites that tell of southeast Louisiana's past, and some of the best fishing in the South.

LOUISIANA CIVIL RIGHTS TRAIL

The 1950s and '60s were a time of immense cultural change for Black Americans throughout the country. The scars of slavery, Jim Crow laws, and the rise of the Civil Rights Movement weren't just in the headlines — challenges affecting the right to vote and civil liberties were being lived daily in Louisiana.

The Louisiana Civil Rights Trail is a collection of sites throughout the state honoring the efforts of activists who organized for and dedicated themselves to change.

Learn about Ruby Bridges and desegregation efforts in New Orleans' schools, citywide boycotts, and sit-ins to fight hiring discrimination. Discover Dooky Chase's Restaurant — where the beloved, late "Queen of Creole Cuisine" Leah Chase hosted and fed giants of the Civil Rights Movement like Thurgood Marshall, the Rev. A.L. Davis, and Martin Luther King, Jr. — as they strategized a path forward. Though Mrs. Chase passed away in 2019, the restaurant remains in operation today by her family, and is one of the most famous Creole restaurants in the country.

WILDLIFE TOURS & FISHING

Accessing the bayous of south Louisiana is easy with airboats, swamp tours, and charter fishing outfitters just on the outskirts of the city.

Nothing beats a high-speed ride in an airboat. Airboat Tours by Arthur L. Matherne and Swamp Adventures are great options west of the city, while Jean Lafitte Swamp & Airboat Tours and Airboat Adventures are solid choices to our south.

For a more serene option, Cajun Pride Swamp Tours guides visitors through the mysterious and remote Manchac Swamp, where we recommend a stop at Middendorf's for famous thin-fried catfish! Cajun Encounters Tour Co., Beyond the Bayou Tours, and Dr. Wagner's Honey Island Swamp Tours on the Northshore have small flat-bottomed boats and are close to Insta-Gator Alligator Ranch in Covington, where kids can hold a baby alligator and learn about wildlife conservation.

For a high-flying adventure, don't miss Zip NOLA in LaPlace, just a 45-minute drive from the city. It's Louisiana's only zipline over a swamp!

Those wanting to do more than just look at wildlife can find inshore and offshore charter fishing operations nearby, such as Rojas Fishing Charters, Bourgeois Fishing Charters, and Southern Style Bowfishing.

PLANTATION TOURS

Louisiana was the site of America's first sugar plantations, dating to 1751. Over the following decades, wealthy landowners had enormous "big houses" built, financed by the work of enslaved labor and an insatiable demand for sugar cane.

Many of those plantations and surrounding cane fields are still standing and have opened as museums in a region known as the Great River Road, a roughly 70-mile stretch of highways between New Orleans and Baton Rouge.

These historic homes offer guided or audio tours of the properties, taking visitors on a time travel through Louisiana's early agricultural history, as well as the South's role in slavery. Homes such as Oak Alley and Whitney Plantation offer additional insight into the lives of enslaved Africans, with Whitney being the only plantation museum in Louisiana to focus solely on narratives from the enslaved.

HOW TO GET THERE

Rideshare services offer transportation to Great River Road plantations, but they may not offer return rides back to New Orleans. If you don't have a car, check out tour providers in the listings section of this guide, which visit the plantations daily.

FAVORITE LOCAL FEST OR EVENT

Hands down, the Easter Gay Parade! Everyone has had their fill of Easter brunch and is decked out in pastel. It's the happiest day of the year.

FAVORITE PLACES TO EAT

Like my name implies, I'm large and in charge and love to eat. If I'm craving a shrimp po-boy, I'm getting one at Frady's in the Bywater. Lilly's in the Lower Garden District has the best pho in the city. If I'm wanting to wine and dine somebody, I'm trying to get a table (downstairs is where you want to be seen, darling) at the world-famous Galatoire's in the French Quarter.

FAVORITE OUTDOOR ATTRACTION

It's always nice to grab a blanket and pack a picnic for a hang at The Fly in the Riverbend. There's always somebody cute to look at, and you can watch the ships sail by.

FAVORITE BAR

Try the mac-and-cheese bites at Betty's, hit up Broadway Night at the Pub on Bourbon, walk down to Santos on Decatur for some of the coolest (and weirdest) live music and DJs, and end your night at the Phoenix for a cheap beer and shot!

AUDUBON PARK

Take the St. Charles Avenue streetcar Uptown to Audubon Park, where you'll find nearly two miles of trails, a riverside sports complex (The Fly) and greenery galore. The main attraction here is the Audubon Zoo, whose attractions like the Louisiana Swamp alligator lagoon, the African Savanna lion exhibit, and Asian elephant exhibit keep families coming back for repeat visits. Even better, kids can get some real play time in at the zoo, courtesy of the climbable Monkey Hill exhibit.

CITY PARK

Highlights of City Park include the Louisiana Children's Museum and beautifully expanded Besthoff Sculpture Garden. More outdoors experiences await young visitors as well: Mini-golfing at City Putt, riding the miniature train at Carousel Gardens Amusement Park (open seasonally), making memories at Storyland, walking among the greenery at New Orleans Botanical Gardens, and renting a pedalboat or kayak at City Park Boat House.
